Following points were discussed:-

1. The AQAR for the session 2021-22 was briefed to Prof. Nidhi Sharma. She suggested that faculty members should publish their research publications in journals which are peer reviewed and UGC Care listed.
2. She further suggested that office records regarding finance, revenue attained from different sources should be maintained properly.
3. Media Lab may be created. Teachers can record their lectures and can stream them in their youtube channel.
4. Prof. Indu Upadhyay informed that being an ARTS college, faculty members are from Arts and Social Science background. Hence publications of faculty members are in Peer Reviewed journals, fewer papers are there in UGC Care listed and Scopus indexed journals. In this connection Prof. Nidhi Sharma suggested that online accessibility of journal could be hosted in different sites.
5. It was informed that book dissemination has started in order to inculcate reading habits among students.
6. It was suggested to keep records of good dissertation in the college library. Software for plagiarism checking can be procured.
7. It was suggested that students should be motivated to take initiatives in various literary activities. In this connection it was informed that the third edition of the e-magazine 'Thati' by Dept. of AIHC & Archeology will be released soon.

8. Various students club can be formed where students from other colleges can also join and spread awareness in the society.
9. Dr. Nisha Singh, suggested that for positive coverage from press, there should be an active PRO in the institution.
10. She also suggested that sessions from informative person can be organized for students regarding dressing sense, mental health and other relevant topics.
11. Prof. Indu Upadhyay, informed that the AQAR for the session 2021-22 is distributed among the committee members as below :-
