

CLUB 'ANTIQUITY'

Club 'Antiquity' of the Department of AIHC & Archaeology aims to delve into the vast spectrum of academic activities in Ancient Indian History, Culture and Archaeology. It is established to promote the habit of research and innovation among young students and to create a group of like-minded history enthusiasts to organise and participate in curriculum-based activities like expert talks, student colloquiums, webinars and competitions, etc. The club is run by the students under the mentorship of teachers.

OBJECTIVES

- ◉ Facilitate experimental learning for critical understanding of the subject.
- ◉ Encourage out-of-the-box thinking to promote original research.
- ◉ Help inculcate professional skills by exposure to new challenges and opportunities.
- ◉ Improve social behaviour through working as a team.
- ◉ Build an academic network.
- ◉ Improve communication and presentation skills

पुरा वनस्पति के अवशेषों से होता है संस्कृति की तिथि का निर्धारण

वाराणसी। पुरावनस्पति के अवशेषों के आधार पर किसी भी संस्कृति की तिथि का निर्धारण किया जा सकता है। साथ ही प्रजाति विषयक, पारिस्थितिकी एवं वानस्पतिक विविधता की जानकारी भी प्राप्त की जा सकती है। यह बात सिओल नेशनल यूनिवर्सिटी, दक्षिण कोरिया की सहायक प्रवक्ता डा. जेनिफर बेट्स ने वसंत कन्या महाविद्यालय कमन्स में कही। प्राचीन भारतीय इतिहास संस्कृति एवं पुरातत्व विभाग द्वारा 'हड़प्पा का पुरातत्व: वर्तमान शोध एवं भविष्य दिशा' विषयक विशेष व्याख्यान में उन्होंने कहा कि हड़प्पा काल के अलग-अलग क्षेत्रों से 363 वानस्पतिक प्रजातियाँ प्राप्त हुई थीं। जिसमें गेहूँ, जौ, धान, मटर, इत्यादि थे। कार्यक्रम का संचालन डॉ. आरती चौधरी, अतिथि का स्वागत प्राचार्य प्रो. रचना श्रीवास्तव व धन्यवाद ज्ञापन विभाग की अध्यक्ष डॉ. नैरंजना श्रीवास्तव ने किया। इस अवसर पर डा. आरती कुमारी, प्रो. पूनम पांडेय, प्रो. मीनू पाठक, डॉ. आशीष सोनकर, डॉ. पूर्णिमा, डॉ. शशिकेश गोंड, डॉ. आरती कुमारी, डॉ. सिमरन, डॉ. सौमिली मंडल, डॉ. प्रदीप शर्मा, डॉ. आराधना इत्यादि उपस्थित रहे।

Club Antiquity organized a program IN TALK with Dr Sachin Kumar Tiwari, Senior Assistant Professor, BHU Varanasi on 20 October 2023. Describing rock art as an efficient tool to know ancient history, Dr Tiwari stressed increasing the efforts for its conservation.

The Club organized an Online Lecture on Careers in Archaeology and Beyond. Speaker Dr. Kalyan Shekhar Chakraborty, Assistant Professor, Dept. of History and the Centre for Interdisciplinary Archaeological Research, Ashoka University, gave useful insight into career possibilities and opportunities in the field of Archaeology.
